Sir. Dian
디안님

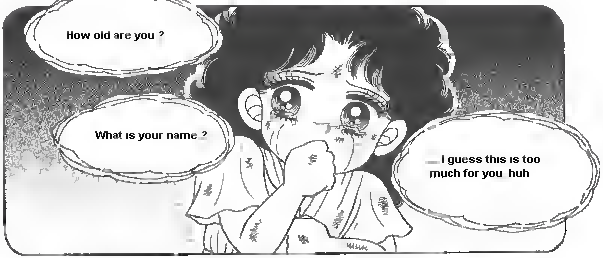
How ... have you been doing ...
You have returned at last.
This is my home.
And ... you wait for me here ...
... Right ...



How old are you ?
What is your name ?
__ I guess this is too much for you huh

Will you come with me ?

Since you can't speak
Let me call you __ Bice
Well that s just a nick name
Your full name is Bicerni.

You and I
We will be a family from now on

Thank you for coming back.
Really.
My father
Dian
Is she who you were looking for ?
No.
No, I was too desperate to think that she must be alive.
I didn't think there was another women who was a good fighter
I must have jumped to conclusions easily.

You are not going to kill me now, are you ?
The female pirate is known not to attack Ramira merchant ships I heard Anatoria and Skador merchants ships sometimes use Ramira flags to get by.
Although they got hunted by other pirates I heard
That means she must be from Ramira
She wouldn't kill a fellow friend from Ramira— would she ?
Everyone seems so nice
Dian will decide your fate
N no hey, young man
I am not a spy !
Dian will decide that too

Hey, handsome young man, come on And Sei ?
He should be onboard a vessel bound to Ramira yesterday.
I see
Hey, wait ! Haft !
Did you just say 'Sei ?!
Did he have a huge scar on his face ?

Do you know him ?
Did he__ Did he__
Have a 12 years old ish child with him ?
Name the child
P__ry__
He must really know him.

There was another child
Don't tell me...
Can't be...
...Juyd...?

No more red figures please.
The king of Skador did inform us that no more financial assistance is possible.
And we cannot ask for more donations
Jewelry merchants are demanding to be paid
And we are well past our deadline to pay the debts
The recent parties were paid by Skador ambassador.
You must reduce number of parties you host and also must reduce purchases of jeweley.
Skador merchants make large sum of profits in Anatorina due to my efforts Ask them to pay more

Your highness !
As you are aware recently pirates activities have vastly increased
They are already complaining We can't really ask for more...
Enough already. Parties won't be held for a while since the king is ill I will contact my mother for some support
Can't he take care of anyth ng alone
My allowance is too little Demand to have it higher.
According to past records, you are being paid at least few times more than how much previous queens were paid...
That should tell you enough
Whose side are you on ? Do something
I have nothing to do but parties ! Without them, I will be bored to death !
Your highness
Brother
Good t m ng
Leave now

As feared
Tor s naval fleet was gathered
But it was not at port Ato
It was found at port Rto.

It would appear they are prepared to leave at any time They are probably waiting for king Tor s order
That means the rumors that father is dead is
and that the king is only playing ill

Is the reason he has his armies gathered Does this mean he will have a war with brother Muzo ?
King Tor has always been looking for a legitimate way to step into Skador
Now he has a good excuse
Is he going to attack him with brother Yapa ?

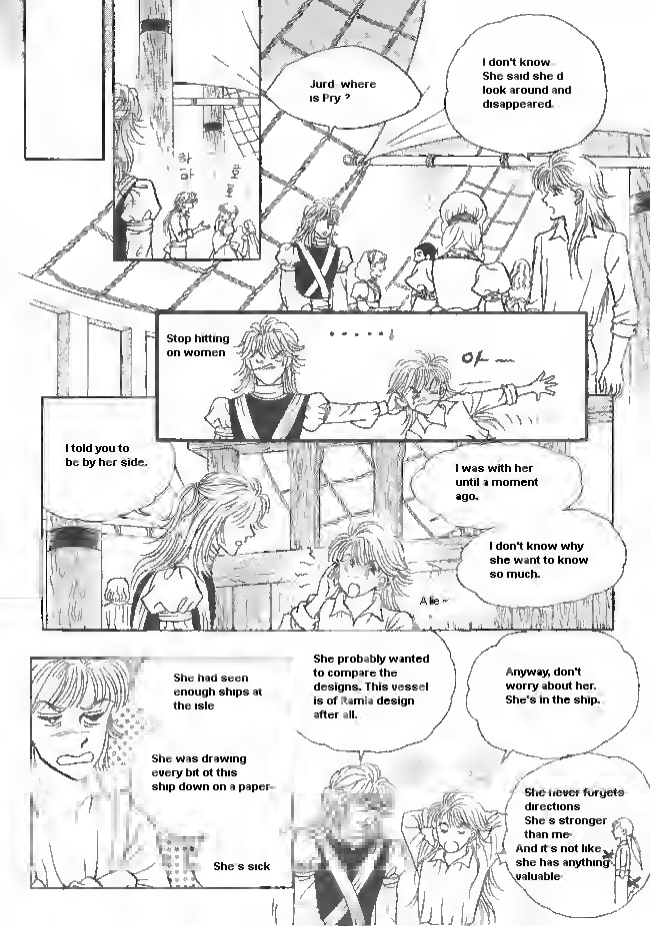
So father is indeed dead...
Ever since brother Muzo took over governing I expected this to happen but this is too soon...
Father promised to have my child to take over the throne of Anatoria
Will brother Muzo do the same for me..?
That will depend on outcome of this war
Will king Tor go there ?
It is very likely possible since he has adopted Sibel suddenly...

He may die in a battle like that king Barder !
After king Tor leaves I must get ready to get rid of Sibel ...
... Yes king Tor is not invincible
Whose side are you on brother ?
Are you on brother Yapa s side ?
I am
On Skador s side

If Tenka takes over the throne, it will help Skador
No matter whoever becomes the king of Skador
Father sent you here to make that happen
You must help me until the end
You are I are in the same boat now.
Like me, you can no longer return to Skador anymore.



Jurd where is Pry ?
I don't know. She said she d look around and disappeared.
Stop hitting on women
I told you to be by her side.
I was with her until a moment ago.
I don't know why she want to know so much.
She had seen enough ships at the isle
She was drawing every bit ot this ship down on a paper
She s sick
She probably wanted to compare the designs. This vessel is of Ramia design after all.
Anyway, don't worry about her. She's in the ship.
She never forgets directions She s stronger than me And it s not like she has anything valuable

There aren't much differences between a warship and a merchant ship
Is that way it has so many cannons?
Actually, more than halt ot the cannon windows are fake It s just there to show that this ship might have more cannons 껄껄!
아하
I guess wood used for the main mast has to be super strong ?
Not just strong it also has to be flexible so either pine or fir wood is used
Wow m ster you seem to know a lot I had a feeling that you d know a lot
Hah you cute little one you have good eyes I know much about sh ps
Do you have a way to commun cate with other sh ps from a d stance on sea ?
Yep we do We use flags Let s see

I will trust your words and believe that the children are of noble birth and are from Ramira.
And I do understand that you want to find your long lost cousin.
But it is very hard to track a ship on sea just to get them back
Besides I am told that they'd return.
They would not return !
They would not return -- That s Ser

Perhaps
But that cannot be helped even if he does not return
Please...!
I need to find the children!
For Ramira...
I must find them!
Tell me the reason
That s...
I will tell you once you find them

That s just one more reason nof to go
First of all the ship departed from port Kare It went the opposite direction from us
By now it should be three days of distance away.
And look at the sky now.
A big storm is coming
Going out there at a time like this is like committing suicide
No one here will be willing to be onboard a ship now.
You are a pirate Will you be moved by money ?

You had nothing of value in your bag.
And we don't just move merely because of money.
The only reason I let you live is because you are from the Inka, one of the more loyal families in former Ramira.
I trusted your words only because
I've heard of your family.
So, you are a pirate and you support king Iiyon ?
Why weren't you there at the battle five years ago then ?

Look, at the time, he was ...
I was unable to join the war.
So I am trying to make up for that fault
If king Biyon is alive I'd find him and also find the princess if she is alive—
And I will devote and sacrifice my very life to repay for what I couldn't do—
Then, that's one more reason to go right now—

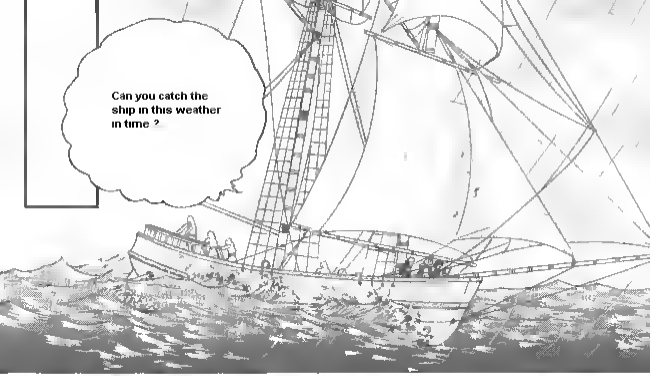
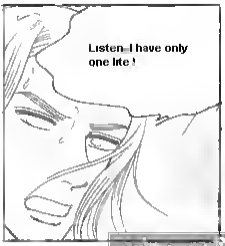
The child Pry, who was living here
Her full name is Preia Pyorodoba
She is the princess born from
The king Biyon Pyorodoba and the queen Biancasta Pyorodoba

He has brought grave news that the king Agro has passed away.
You are way late
Prince Yapa has already sent me a message that his father was murdered by his own son and has requested for help
My queen s father is also my father-
If my father in-law was murdered by his own blood I will not just sit here and watch !

Behead Muzo's messenger.
S...sire!
I've accepted Prince Yapa's request for help.
I hereby declare to punish prince Muzo who has murdered his own father.
We will go to Skador.



We've got the best navigator, the best sailors, and the fastest ship we have
We will sail without any rest. We will keep going until we see the ship



www.jaimes.com

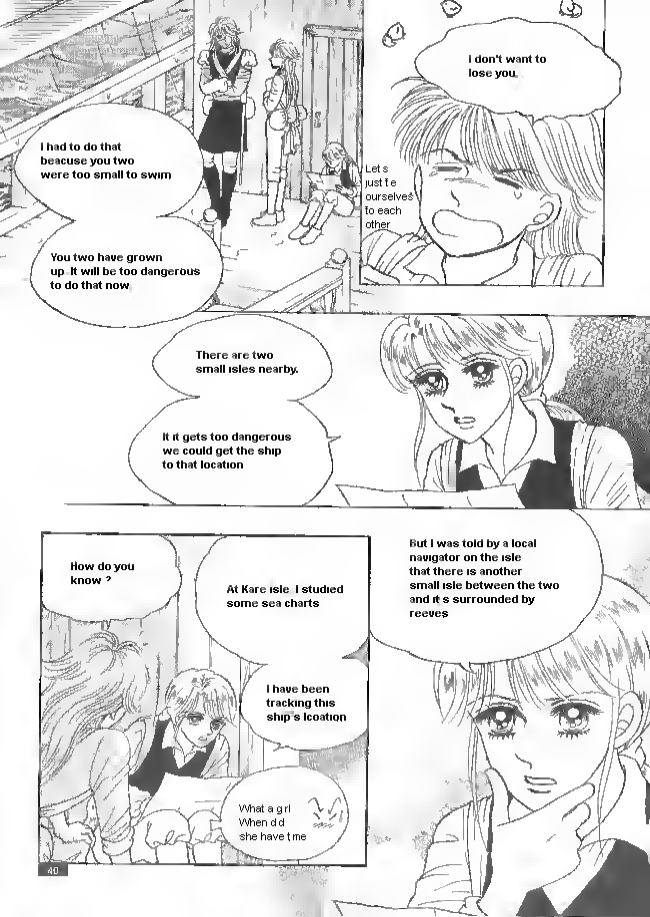
프린세스 Princess

Lower sails !

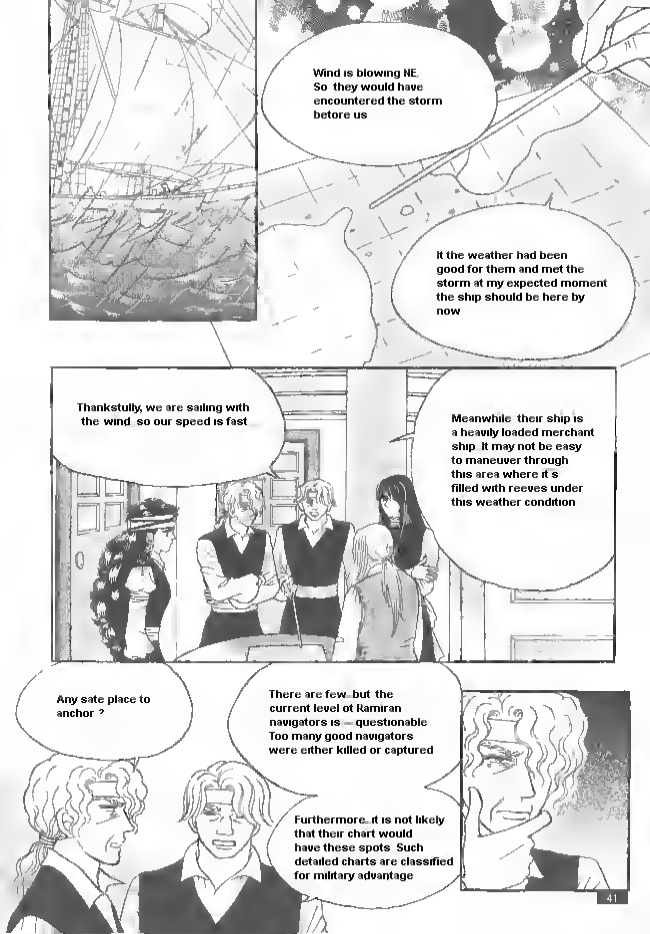
Lower sails now !

I don't believe this !
The weather was fine just a moment ago !
Suddenly, it's fierce wind and heavy rain !

Passengers !
Please get to your quarters !
Tie up the cargo crates !
If you tie up loosely like that, the crates will move !
What should we do Sei ?
If we fall into the sea like before...
Should we tie ourselves to each other like before ?
This rain is not going to stop anytime soon...



I don't want to lose you.
Let s just t e ourselves to each other
I had to do that beacuse you two were too small to swim
You two have grown up. It will be too dangerous to do that now.
There are two small isles nearby.
It it gets too dangerous we could get the ship to that location
How do you know ?
At Kare isle. I studied some sea charts
I have been tracking this ship's lcoation
What a grl When d d she have t me
But I was told by a local navigator on the isle that there is another small isle between the two and it s surrounded by reeves



Wind is blowing NE
So they would have encountered the storm before us
If the weather had been good for them and met the storm at my expected moment the ship should be here by now
Thankstully, we are sailing with the wind so our speed is fast
Meanwhile their ship is a heavily loaded merchant ship It may not be easy to maneuver through this area where it's filled with reeves under this weather condition
Any safe place to anchor ?
There are few but the current level of Ramiran navigators is questionable Too many good navigators were either killed or captured
Furthermore it is not likely that their chart would have these spots Such detailed charts are classified for military advantage

How ...
Did the princess end up living on the isle ?
Five years ago ... we were informed of the war late due to various reasons
We rushed to get to the battlefield...but the war was already nearing its end
Barder was killed...but king Riyon was unable to repel unexpected Skador s forces
His armies were shattered
We were also forced to retreat

But, just in case, we were wandering around the secret island that the king Biyon once used to prepare the war.

While at it, we saw something.

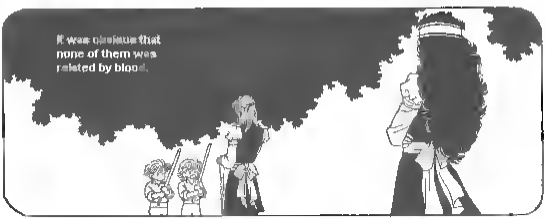
We were just going to ignore but I saw two kids and they kept getting on my mind. So, I ordered to pull them off sea

The man was mortally wounded, but the female child he had tied to him was miraculously unharmed.

What is your name ?
Is this man ... your father ?
Ser... started to walk well after a year...
Everybody said he'd die... But he recovered...

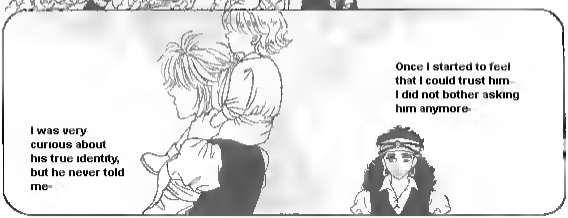
We saved him, but he never told any of us about himself for five years.

The children also only said that they once lived in Korshuka.



Once Sei was able to walk with a walking stick, he started to teach us skills that we had never heard of before.

Still, we got along great.

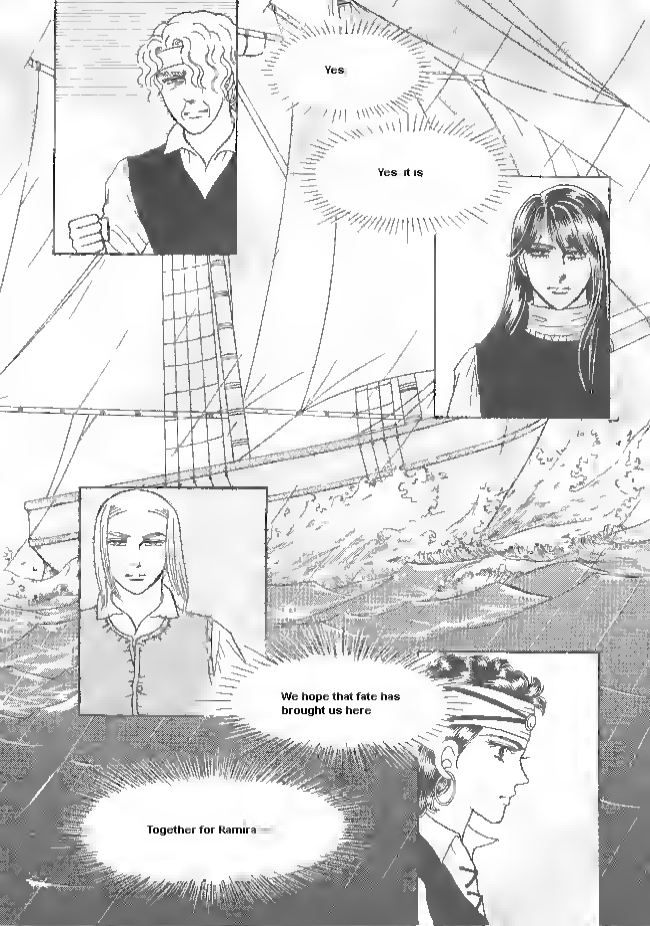


I was very curious about his true identity, but he never told me.
Once I started to feel that I could trust him, I did not bother asking him anymore.

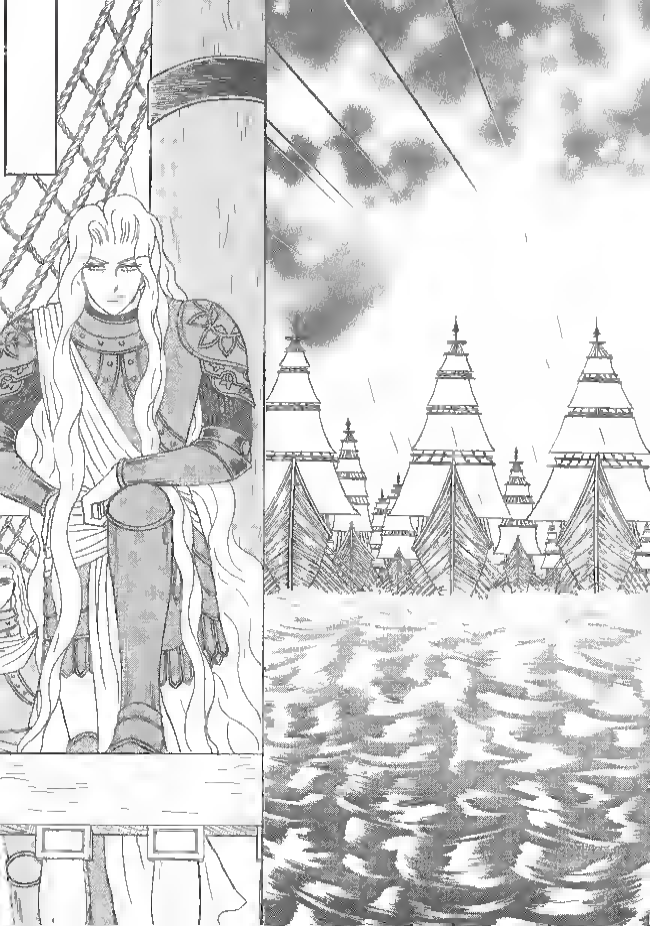
Sei had a rather big part in me becoming the infamous pirate I am now
If I knew she was the princess ... I would have never let them leave
I sincerely thank you for rescuing them and letting them live when they refused to tell you their identities
...It must have been fate.

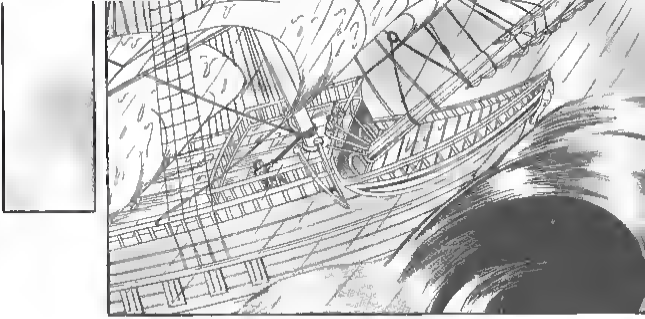
What I told you was truth
Now only it the king is alive—
You don't really know his whereabouts? It s hard to believe that you don't know especially when you were in the battle five years ago
The last thing I remember is a cannon ball coming to my way— When I woke up I was by a riverside— When I finally recovered enough to be able to move the war was over—
Why don't you tell me truth.
Victory was in our grasp—
Once the war starts prince Muzo who was secretly allied with Karta was supposed to revolt and stop Skador from sending any troops—
But Muzo deceived Karta and he waited until SKador sent troops to Ramira before he revolted—
They —didn't also find the body of the king s guardian Sir Vaida did they ?

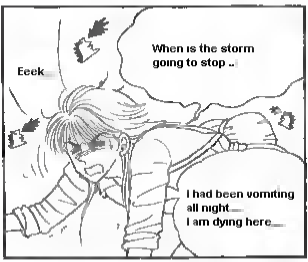
No.
I know they looked for the body really desperately, but they couldn't find it
He is likely alive with the king then
The king IS alive !
He couldn't be seen anywhere when everyone was looking for him
We will find the princess and the king
And we will get Ramira back !
Fate has brought us here together for that purpose



Yes
Yes it is
We hope that fate has brought us here
Together for Ramira







Eeek
When is the storm going to stop ..
I had been vomiting all night.... I am dying here....

Hey, Pry...
I see an isle.

You were right
There is an isle
Phew we are saved
No
That s...
What ?
I was told that the sate isle has three hills
That is not the isle

Hey ?!
Where are you going ?!
Pry
Pry
It's too dangerous out on deck!
Go back!
You are...
Mister! I must speak to the captain

Left!
Left !
Do not lose to the waves !
We mustn't lose balance !
What is it ?
Um this child said she must talk to you...

Are you kidding me ?!
At a time like this !
You bring a kid who wants to talk to me ?!
I did tell her how busy you are...
But she said the isle we are trying to escape to is surrounded by reeves
어쨌나 간곡하게 말하는지
You must turn around captain
You fool !
Get her out of here !
You must turn right !
Get out of my way !

Listen to her
Unless you want a watery grave
Who the hell are you ?!
I am one of the passenger Everyone here deserves to live
I am the captain of this ship !
You really expect me to listen to a kid ?!
You want me to sail into the storm again when a place to anchor is right there ?!
Are you trying to kill us all ?!

Sir Dian let me take

Hah age is just

Now let us take our turn !
We are getting there so cheer up !
Yes sir !

This is from king Tor.
He is on his way, I see.
Good !
I will lead my army tomorrow
I will rendezvous with king Tor at fort Aria as promised-
I will go prepare

General
If
I die during the war,
you will send the princess to Anatoria.
That was the deal with king Tor
I am counting on you.
... I understand.
What you must remember
no matter what is...
When Yapa gets killed
you must remain in Skador.
If you cannot find an excuse to remain in Skador, get yourself killed so that at least your dead body will remain in Skador.
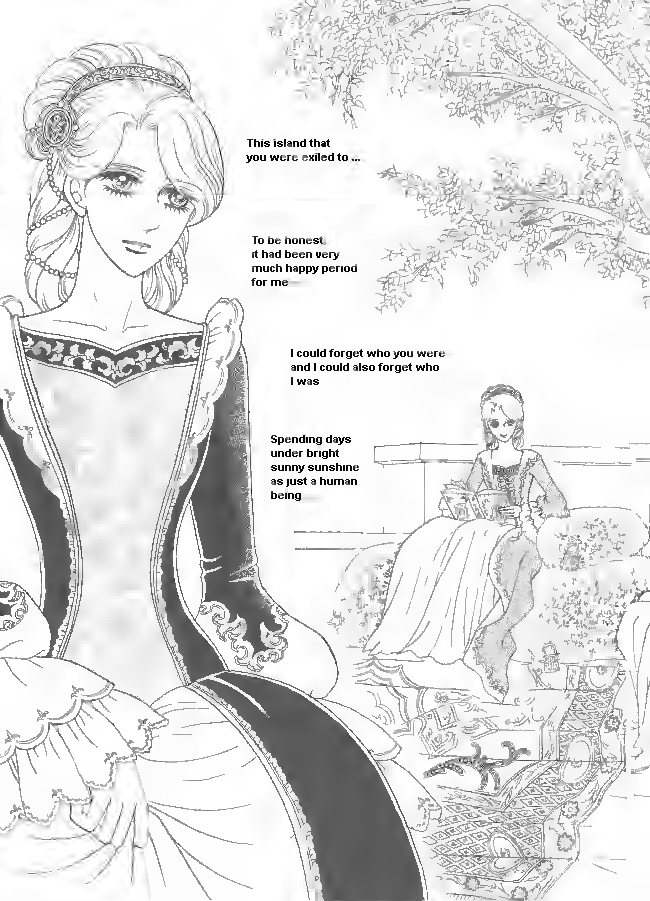
Am I making myself
clear ?

... So, at last,
you are going ...
Theodora ..
I may not be able to return

Forgive me for
Not having been able to offer you a child
If I fail to return
You must return to Anatoria
Muzo will not let you live
I just ..
And ..
I fear the world
without you
Want you to live on



This island that you were exiled to ...
To be honest it had been very much happy period for me
I could forget who you were and I could also forget who I was Spending days under bright sunny sunshine as just a human being

However, you are the prince of wind.
I am well aware that this is not your place to be...
And...
the path you choose to walk on...
shall be mine as well

I was actually going to visit you after this session was over
Is that so ? I should have stayed in my quarter then
I apologize to inform you but the time has come for me to leave this place Lady!
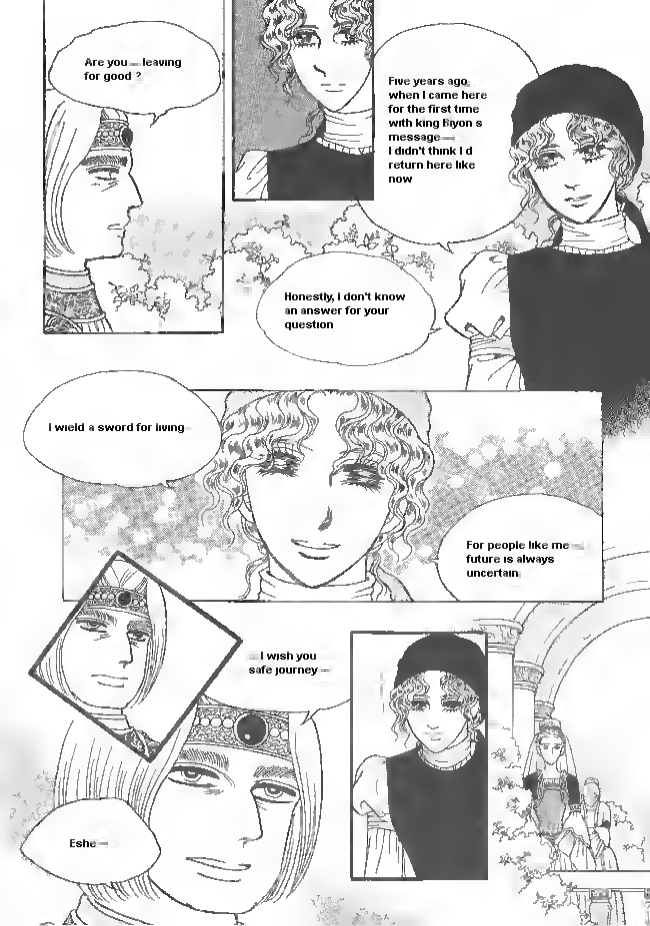
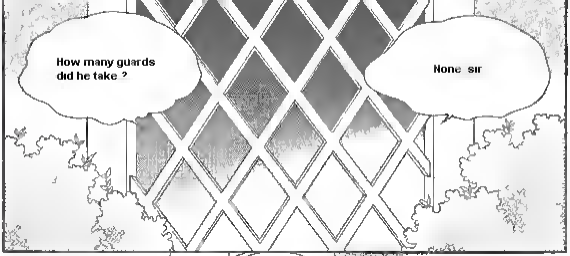
Thank you for allowing me to teach your son
Also forgive me that I will not be able to repay your favor for allowing me to take the responsibility.

Where
Where will you be going ?
I must do something
Do you
Have to go ?
Yes I must
Thank you but
I feel that acting alone will be better
Is there anything I can do for you ?
If you need I will lend you a small army.
www.janime.com



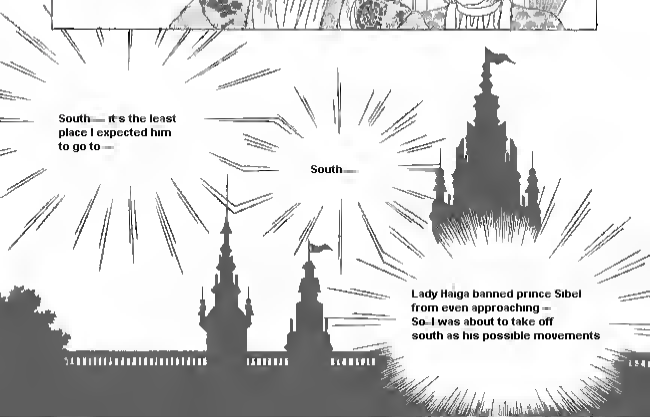
Are you leaving for good ?
Five years ago, when I came here for the first time with king Eiyon s message I didn't think I d return here like now
Honestly, I don't know an answer for your question
I wield a sword for living
For people like me future is always uncertain
I wish you safe journey
Eshe

Sire !
It s been reported that prince Tor has left the palace
Which direction did he go ?
South I am told
South ?
South ...
Castle Tor ?!



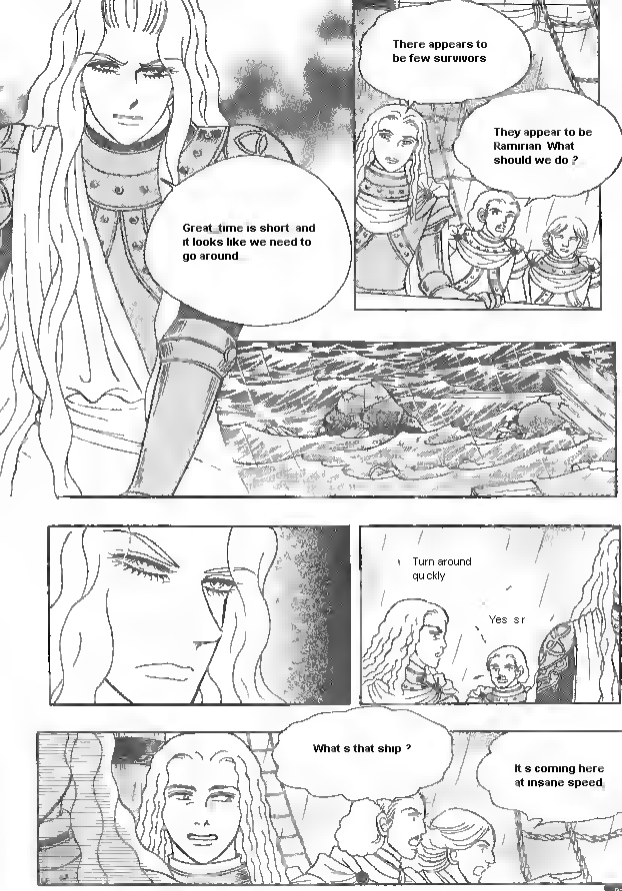
How many guards did he take ?
None sir

Prepare horses
We will move with just few men
Understood

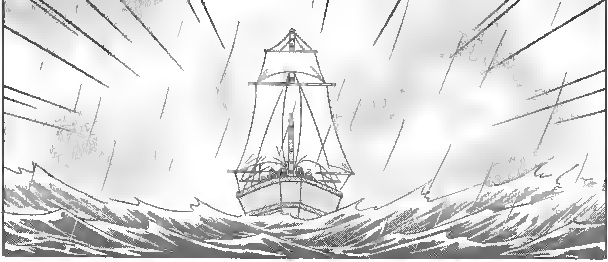


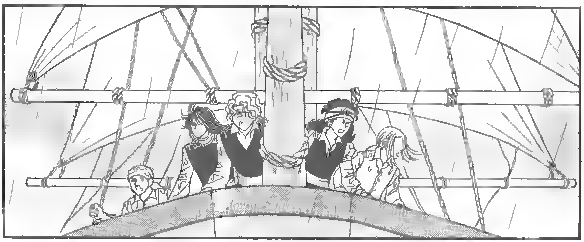
South... It's the least place I expected him to go to...
South...
Lady Haiga banned prince Sibel from even approaching...
So I was about to take off south as his possible movements

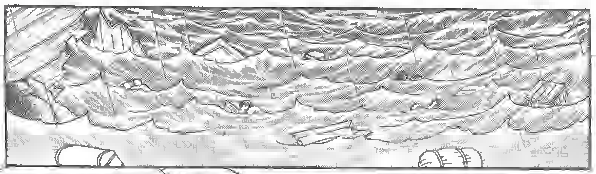
Didn't I tell you to keep a clear distance between ships in weather like this ?
It s not that, sire There is a shipwreck and its debrises are hitting the ship



There appears to be few survivors
They appear to be Ramirian What should we do ?
Great time is short and it looks like we need to go around
Turn around quckly
Yes sr
What s that ship ?
It s coming here at insane speed





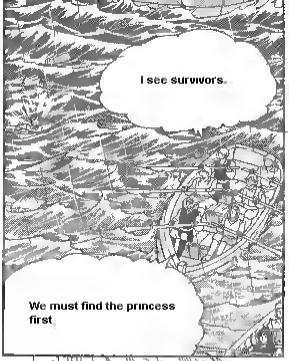


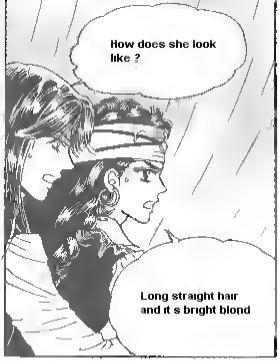
Don't tell me the ship that the princess was onboard has ....
It seems so, Dian.
And look.

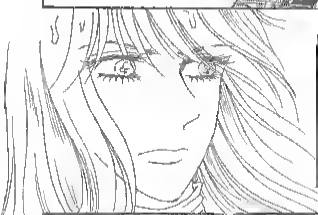
Anatorian fleet !
So finally, a war is breaking out.
Did they attack the merchant ship ?
It doesn't seem that way considering it's turning around to avoid the debrises.
Now, let's search the area.
There are some survivors.
Give me a boat.
It will be quicker.
I am going, too. We will use two boats.

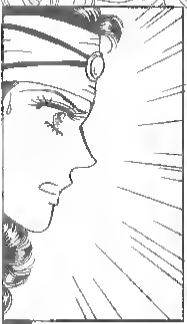
No Dian
You might get into the fleet s attack range
We can escape with this ship at any time and they won't be able to catch us but on a boat even an inaccurate cannon shot can be deadly.
Let s use this ship to search
Bice my life means nothing All is for the princess.
Drop the boats
Those who know Pry's Jurd s and Ser s face must be onboard
I am going, too.

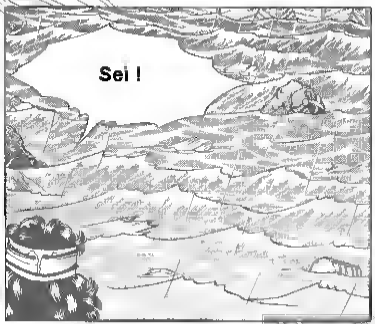
They are not withdrawing
Actually, they seem to be trying to rescue the survivors
That ship doesn't appear to be just bypassing
How did they know here—
Ah ?
That—
What is it ?
It s nothing
It s just that that man by that reef remained me ot Ren





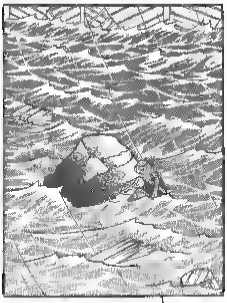






www.ishinei.com

프린세스 Princess

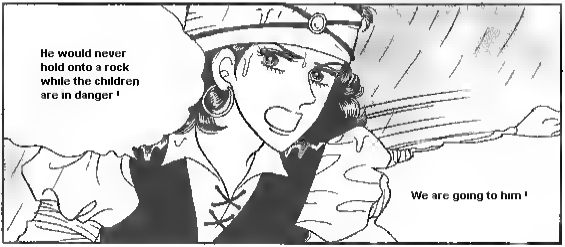


He is too close to the fleet !

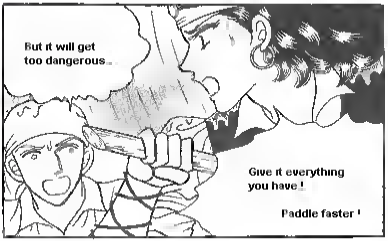
He is hanging onto a reef ! Let's search elsewhere and rescue him when the fleet moves away !

Sei...

He would never let go of the children...
Pardon ?



He would never hold onto a rock while the children are in danger !
We are going to him !



But it will get too dangerous...
Give it everything you have !
Paddle faster !

Bice !

That boat ...
is coming right at us.
I think they are approaching that man who looks like Ren
Ren ...
Yes..., he has different hair color but ...
He does resemble Ren ...
Get closer.
It will be too risky. There are reeves around here.
Who are they trying to rescue in this weather ...

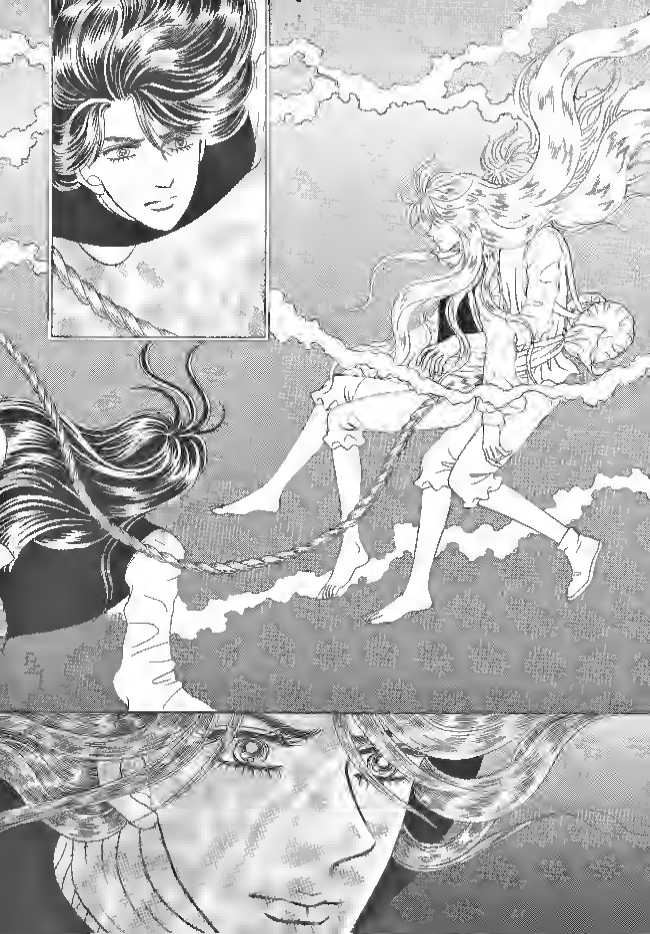
They are not fearing the reeves and even this fleet ...
That black haired
Sei !

Did you hear that ?
What do you mean ?
Drop a boat.
Sire, what is it ?
I must check who they are.
Drop a boat now!
No sire.
You are going to a war now. It is too risky.
Who they are is not important right now.
Since when have you given me orders ?

He seems to be unconscious.
We must not approach closer. The sea is too violent for us to stay still. We will ram the reef.
And he is hanging onto that even ...

Look, they are dropping a boat. I think they are coming here.
We must get out of here

We must rescue Sei
Give me a rope I will go.
No I will go



Why ?
Why did he leave
Sei and submerge ?
Boats from the fleet are coming here !
Hith !
Sei !
Faster !

We must go now !
Hith !

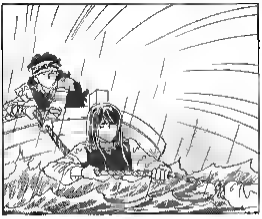
Pry !
Come on !
Get them aboard !

Pull this rope
It's tied to Sei



The children ?
Almost no pulse !
We must perform artificial respiration !

Dear God !

You take Juyd
Yes
They are almost here !
Get us out of here !

Our boat has become too heavy !
They will catch us !
Hith, do you know how to perform artficial respiration ?
I do.
I will leave Pry to you

No
We cannot approach
Pardon ?
That thing that the woman is holding it over her mouth
It s a barrel containing poisonous darts
It she learned the skill from Ren she will not miss

Ren ?!
You mean that man is really...
But still in this weather... Even if you have really good vision... it will be hard to tell exactly...
Turn around
Let's not waste any more time in this.
Sire ?
Return to the fleet !
Ren...
No...Sei...
If that was really you...
You and I... there is nothing between us now...
They are turning around...
Why are they suddenly going back ?

She's saved !
Juyd s okay, too !
